

STARTER

Write the following words in alphabetical order:

✕ Fade

✕ Fire

✕ Feather

✕ Flint

✕ Fiddle

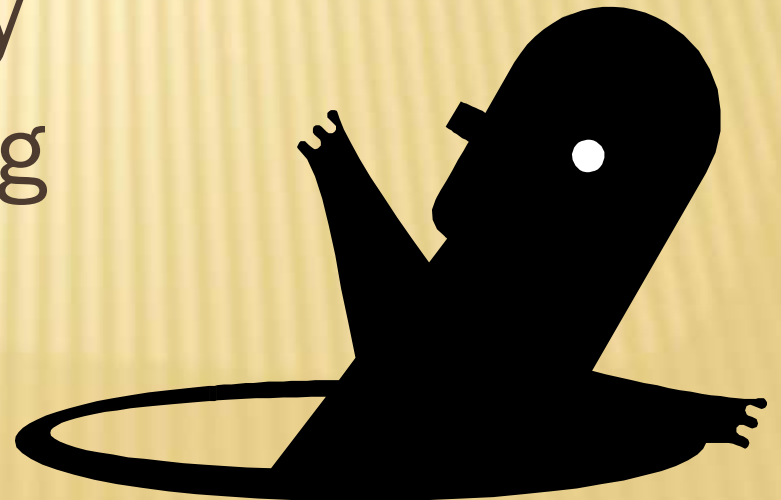

✕ Fin

✕ First

✕ Feeling

✕ Fury

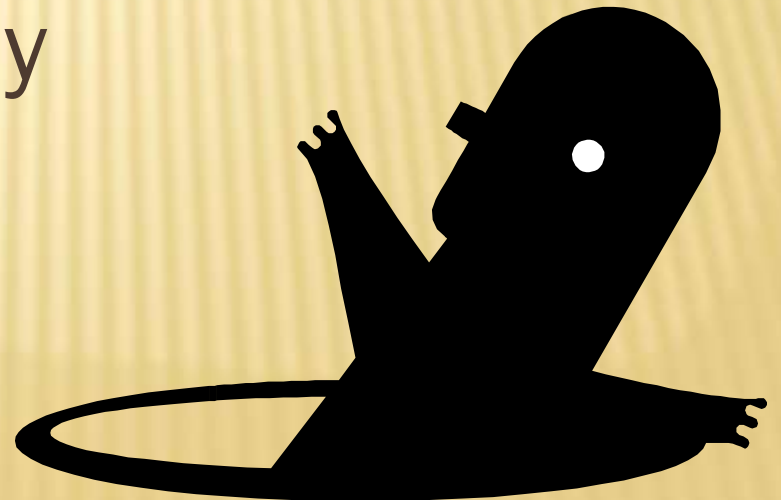

✕ Fling

STARTER

This is the order you should have:

- ✕ Fade
- ✕ Feather
- ✕ Feeling
- ✕ Fiddle
- ✕ Fin
- ✕ Fire
- ✕ First
- ✕ Fling
- ✕ Flint
- ✕ Fury

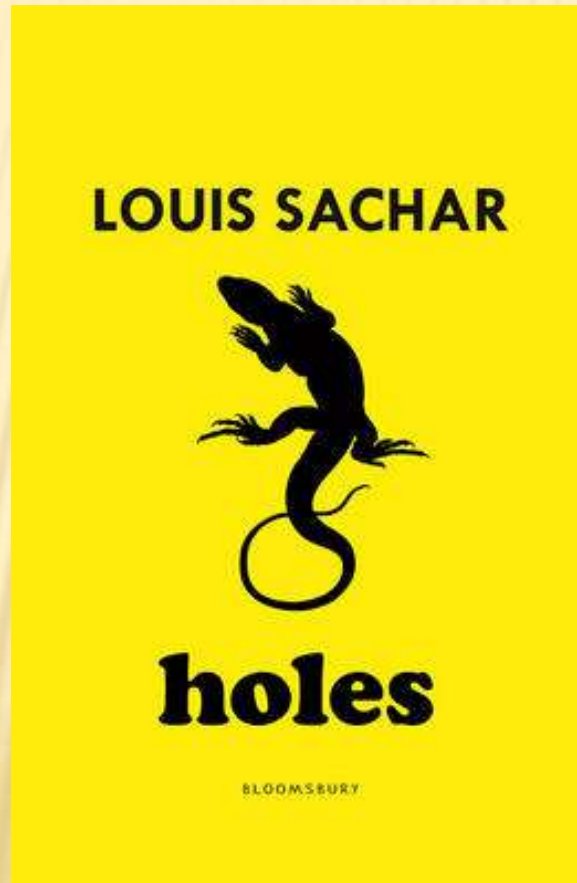

To be able to describe character by referring to the text.

- ✖ What opinion have you formed of Stanley from the first two chapters?
- ✖ Refer back to your notes from yesterday if you need to.
- ✖ Why do you have this opinion of him?

HOLES

✕ We are now going to read Chapter 3 together.

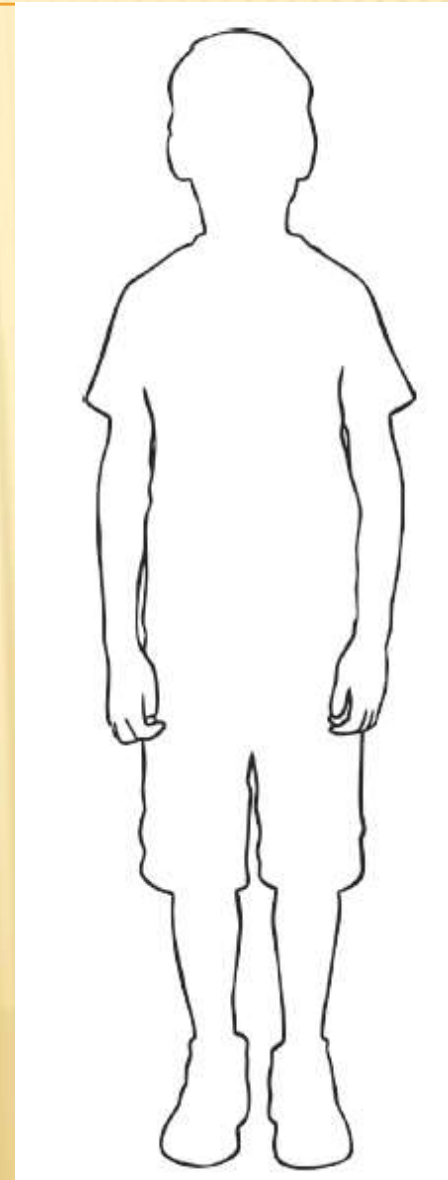

To be able to describe character by referring to the text.

STANLEY YELNATS
Initial impressions of Stanley (after reading chapter 1 and 2)	Later impressions of Stanley (after reading chapter 3)
Evidence which informs this impression	Evidence which informs this impression

We are going to complete the first section of this table together.

To be able to describe character by referring to the text.

- ✗ Your task for today – Using information from chapters 1-3
- ✗ Draw an outline of Stanley. Inside your outline write words that describe him as a person. This could include things about his personality, feelings and emotions.
- ✗ Around the outside of the outline, write words to describe what he looks like, what he has done and about his place in the world.

To be able to describe character by referring to the text.

CHALLENGE

- ✗ What are your first impressions of Kate Barlow?
- ✗ What are your impressions of Stanley's relationship with his father?
- ✗ What evidence from the text can you find to support this?
- ✗ What evidence from the text can you find to support this?