

L.O: To be able to write a personal recount including the passive voice.

I can order events.

I can use descriptive language.

I can write in the passive voice.

I can use hyphens.

L.O: To be able to write a personal recount including the passive voice.

What do you remember about recounts?
What are some of the features?

L.O: To be able to write a personal recount including the passive voice.

Chronological order – sequential words : Then, later, next, ten minutes later, after that Usually first person, sometimes third person.

Past tense

Descriptive language

Introduction...details...conclusion

The five W's

L.O: To be able to write a personal recount including the passive voice.

Passive Voice

In a passive sentence, the thing that would normally be the object gets turned into the subject through the use of the passive form of the verb. They often include a prepositional phrase starting with 'by'.

L.O: To be able to write a personal recount including the passive voice.

Does anybody have any good ideas from their plan or their passive sentences they would like to share?

L.O: To be able to write a personal recount including the passive voice.

Your challenge is to include hyphens.

What are hyphens?

When are they used?

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zvwwxnb/articles/zg8gbk7>

L.O: To be able to write a personal recount including the passive voice.

Compound Nouns

Read the following sentences and identify which one has been written correctly.

I saw a young passer by staring in through the window.

I saw a young passer-by staring in through the window.

We use a hyphen to create a compound noun where if we didn't, it might get confusing.

L.O: To be able to write a personal recount including the passive voice.

Compound Adjectives

Read the following sentences and identify which one has been written correctly.

The tired looking teacher slumped at his desk.

The tired-looking teacher slumped at his desk.

We use a hyphen to create a compound adjective before a noun.

L.O: To be able to write a personal recount including the passive voice.

Compound Noun or Compound Adjective?

Sort the following words depending on whether they are a compound noun or a compound adjective:

Compound Nouns

Compound Adjectives

passer-by five-star
dry-cleaning

take-off
short-sleeved
check-out

two-year-old bad-tempered second-hand

six-page
mother-in-law

L.O: To be able to write a personal recount including the passive voice.

Your Task.

Write your recount on the template provided, make sure to include the features we have talked about and challenge yourself to use the passive voice and hyphenated words.

Do not stick this in your lockdown learning book!

Keep your recount safe and bring it in to school on our first day back