L.O: To develop our understanding of change and how we can deal with this effectively.

Our iShare Learning theme this half term is

SHARING CHRISTIAN FAMILY VALUES iShare Learning APPLYING OUR LEARNING TO OUR LIVES

Our iShare Learning theme this half term is

Can you remember our Bible verse?

Our iShare Learning theme this half term is

Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore, do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself.

Matthew 6vv33-34

What do you understand about this Bible verse?

It means that God knows our path and that he will look after us. We might feel nervous about change but we know that God is with us through all of these difficult times.

What changes have you been through recently?

Put your answers in the chat.

What changes have we experienced this year as a school?

Put your answers in the chat.

How do you think you could use this Bible
verse in your daily life?

Our iShare Learning theme this half term is

Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore, do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself.

Matthew 6vv33-34

SHARING CHRISTIAN FAMILY VALUES iShare Learning APPLYING OUR LEARNING TO OUR LIVES

To not be afraid of change.
Christians believe that God is with us through change to look after us
and keep us safe.

God has a plan for us, including
these changes.

In the future, more changes might happen. Restrictions will lift further and life, hopefully, will go back to a form of 'normal'.

Seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Therefore, do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself.

Matthew 6vv33-34

What are you looking forward to about restrictions lifting?

Your Task.

Write an acrostic poem about the theme of 'change', linking this to the pandemic and what you are looking forward to about restrictions easing.
