Learning Focus:	The Stone Age, Bronze Age and Iron Age covers 98% of human history in Britain. The main way to study this period is through archaeology. During our trip we will become archaeologists by excavating in pits to discover artefacts from the Iron Age. We will be making jewellery by using metals and pliers. We will be working together as a team to create a section of wattle fence. Wattling is an ancient building technique used in the construction of fences and walls during the Iron Age. Finally, we will gather round a camp fire and drink a hot cosy drink and tell stories from the Iron Age.
